RE : A-270-25:
Attorney General of Canada v. Joanne Powless et al.

DIRECTION

This appeal is scheduled for hearing on Monday, October 6, 2025 for a duration not to exceed four hours. To allow equal time for both the position being advocated by the Appellant and the position being advocated by the Respondent and the Interveners, the time for the hearing will be allocated as follows:

1. The Appellant will have 2 hours for both the submissions in chief and the reply; and
2. The Respondent and the Interveners will have a total of 2 hours. The Respondent and the Interveners are encouraged to consult with each other to determine how the time may be allocated among them. Failing an agreement among the Respondent and the Interveners, once the Respondent is finished making submissions, whatever time is remaining from the 2 hours, if any, will be available for the Interveners to make submissions. The Interveners are not to repeat the submissions made by the Respondent.
